

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

CHARLES BURTON RITCHIE,
 BENJAMIN GALECKI,

Defendants.

Case No.: 2:15-cr-0285-APG-EJY

Case No.: 2:20-cr-0163-APG-EJY

Case No.: 2:20-cr-0164-APG-EJY

Order Denying Emergency Motion to Self-Report

[ECF Nos. 585, 590]

Defendants Charles Burton Ritchie and Benjamin Galecki move for permission to self-report to serve their prison terms. ECF Nos. 585, 590. Because they are presently in custody, they are asking that I release them for several months until the Bureau of Prisons designates the institution where they will serve their time. Because they filed their motions before filing their appeals, they cite to 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a), which governs release of defendants who are awaiting execution of a sentence. Now that they have filed appeals, release is governed by 18 U.S.C. § 3143(b). But under either statute, I deny the motion.

Although the defendants have interesting issues to raise on appeal in case 2:15-cr-285, in case 2:20-cr-164 (the EDVA case) there is no likelihood they will be granted a new trial or a sentence that does not include imprisonment. In that case, the defendants waived their rights to appeal their convictions and sentences, so they will serve their sentences in that case regardless of the outcome of the appeal in case 2:15-cr-285. Nor have the defendants met their burden of showing by clear and convincing evidence that they are “not likely to flee or pose a danger to the safety of any other person or the community. . . .” 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2)(B), (b)(1)(A).

1 I THEREFORE DENY the defendants' motions for leave to self-surrender (ECF Nos.
2 585, 590).

3 DATED this 23rd day of September, 2020.
